The regular meeting of I. O. O. F. M. U. will be held in E. of C. hall Monday evening, December 3, at 7 o'clock. Refreshments will be served and a large attendance is requested as there will be nomination of officers. Odd Ladies please take notice. Per order secretary.

Many have been the rumors about "ghosts" this last fall. It is expected that eight real "ghostly" ghosts will be at the entertainment given by the young ladies of the Church of the Good Shepherd Thursday evening, December 6. Do not be afraid of them, for there will be a "divine" presence who has power over them.

The first really cold snap of the winter Saturday night afforded the first opportunity for skating yesterday and a number of boys forgot Sunday school long enough to test the ice, which was pronounced to be good. The coming of the snow last night rather spoiled the sport, however, for today, so that the boys who went to Sunday school yesterday missed the chance. This is not an argument against Sunday school.

Lathrop; chaplain, Martha Poland; con. Edna Whitney; guard, Myra Blanchard; delegate to convention, Helen M. Kimball; alternate, Mary Savary.

During the past year the Relief Corps has removed its headquarters from the town hall to the Odd Fellows hall, and the work has been carried on with renewed interest. A pleasant social feature is the observance of the birthday of each member. At the close of the business meeting on Saturday, Mrs. Lathrop in behalf of the members presented the sec. Mrs. Whitney with a silver berry spoon as a token of their regard and appreciation of her services.
